

The Introduction & Foundation Programmes are for those who are interested in experiencing the therapeutic process of Art Therapy. Prelude to BA programme.

The BA Hons in Integrative Counselling and Art Therapy programme is validated by IT Carlow and fully supports students in learning to work with the multifaceted balance of elements required by the practice of counselling and psychotherapy. This is achieved through advanced personal, professional and academic growth, allowing each student to develop an unique integrated perspective on human development and therapeutic change along with the skills of intervention. The programme also prepares the student for clinical work with its main focus on the therapeutic relationship.

Person Centred Art Psychotherapy Approach (PCAPA)

The Dublin Art Therapy College (DATC) has developed an integrated approach to Art Therapy incorporating Counselling and Psychotherapy skills, and training known as the Person Centred Art Psychotherapy Approach (PCAPA). This consists of a core humanistic approach, using the counselling process and models for change of Person Centred Counselling, further supported and enhanced by the
